

Unfortunately, I was unable to be present for the vote on this conference report due to a visit to my district by President Bush. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on agreeing to the conference report.

TRIBUTE TO BRIGETTE BALET

HON. SCOTT MCINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 18, 2003

Mr. MCINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is my honor to rise and pay tribute to a remarkable young woman from my district. Brigitte Balet from Montrose, Colorado sacrificed her summer break to assist friends in need. For her service, Brigitte recently received the Key Citizens Award from the City of Montrose and I am proud to join the citizens of Montrose in recognizing Brigitte's contributions before this body of Congress here today.

Last summer, Susan and Paul Beaston lost their home to fire. Without being asked, Brigitte donned a mask and set to work helping the Beastons clean up the mess. Throughout the summer, and into the fall, Brigitte worked tirelessly to clean the home and itemize the damage.

Brigitte's service to the Beastons illustrates her selfless and altruistic nature. It is truly a tremendous young woman who is willing to forego a summer vacation to work in a soot and smoke filled home.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to rise and pay tribute to Brigitte Balet. She is an amazing young woman with a bright future and a fine example to young people everywhere. I would like to join the Beastons and the Montrose community in congratulating Brigitte on a well-deserved award.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. LELER VIRGINIA SCARBOROUGH GEORGE

HON. JAMES E. CLYBURN

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 18, 2003

Mr. CLYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to one of my constituents, Mrs. Leler Virginia Scarborough George, who celebrated her 100th Birthday on November 16, 2003. Mrs. George, whose life has reflected not only her exemplary character, courage and commitment to family, but also a dedication to the education of her children, her faith and an untiring work ethic.

Mrs. George was born on November 16, 1903, to Samuel and Lydia Scarborough of Lee County in Bishopville, S.C. Later, Mrs. George married Jimmy George from Wysacky, SC. They purchased their first home on 75 acres of land, which Mrs. George still owns today. Mr. and Mrs. George placed great importance on educating their children and found the resources to send them to Mayesville Institute, a private, boarding school attended by the incomparable civil and human rights pioneer Mary McLeod Bethune. Despite grave challenges, the Georges successfully balanced the financial demands of schooling their children and running a farming operation.

At the young age of 45, Mr. Jimmy George suddenly passed away, leaving Mrs. George with eight children to raise and a ninth child on the way. With undaunted courage, Mrs. George resolved to hold on to their home and farm, and continue pursuing their shared dreams. Mrs. George demonstrated her business acumen and success as a farmer by converting the horse and plow operations she inherited to a completely mechanized farm. In 1983, she was named by the Smithsonian Museum as head of one of the eight outstanding farm families in America.

Mrs. George's greatest legacy and contribution to society are the self discipline and burning desire for education that she instilled in each of her children. All nine of whom went to college and received graduate degrees. Their achievements against remarkable odds attest to the determination and sacrifices of Mrs. George. Her oldest son, James, now deceased, attended Morris College, owned several businesses, and served as director of Training and Rehabilitation for the City of Sumter; Rosella G. Toney, now retired, was an Assistant Principal at Bishopville High School; Mary G. Hopkins, served as a college librarian at Virginia State University and retired as head librarian for Franklin County Middle School in Rocky Mount, VA; Dr. Ruth G. Kennedy retired from North Carolina Central University as an Associate Professor of English and served for a year as Executive Assistant to the Interim Chancellor; Ivorie Lowe retired as Dean of Girls at Bloom Township High School in Chicago, IL; Arthur L. George, formerly an educator with both local schools and the University of South Carolina at Spartanburg, retired as a sales manager with Prudential Insurance Company and presently serves as Senior Chaplain for the Fairfax County Adult Detention Center in Virginia; Kershaw George, a former University of South Carolina Administrator in Admissions, has become an entrepreneur; Dr. Eugene George, formerly an Assistant Professor of Education at the University of South Carolina and Associate Superintendent of Richland School District #1, is presently a school principal in Columbia; Doris Baskette, a former school principal, is now a principal leader and mentor with the South Carolina Department of Education.

A dedicated and lifelong member of St. Mark Baptist Church, Mrs. George received St. Mark's "Mother of the Church" honor this year. An active member, she has served as president of the Missionary Society and Floral Club, Treasurer of the Sunday School, and member of the Usher Board. She maintains her political activism through her membership with the National Council of Negro Women.

Mr. Speaker, Mrs. George's 100th birthday marks a life of stellar achievements, and she is still going strong. There is no question that Mrs. Leler Virginia Scarborough George is a role model for all of us, and ask you and my colleagues to join me in wishing her God-speed.

MISSED ROLLCALL VOTES

HON. DOUG BEREUTER

OF NEBRASKA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 18, 2003

Mr. BEREUTER. Mr. Speaker, on November 17, 2003, this Member unavoidably missed

Rollcall Votes Number 620, 621, 622, 623, 624 due to official business off the Hill. Had this Member been present, this Member would have voted "aye" on these rollcall votes on three suspensions and one procedural vote. The three suspensions were S. J. Res. 22, a resolution recognizing the Agricultural Research Service of the Department of Agriculture for 50 years of outstanding service to the Nation through agricultural research; S. J. Res. 18, a resolution commending the Inspectors General for their efforts to prevent and detect waste, fraud, abuse, and mismanagement, and to promote economy, efficiency, and effectiveness in the Federal Government during the past 25 years; and H. Con. Res. 299, a resolution honoring Mr. Sargent Shriver for his dedication and service to the United States of America, for his service in the United States Navy, and for his lifetime of work as an ambassador for the poor and powerless citizens of the United States of America. The fourth vote was a procedural motion changing the hour of meeting for Tuesday, November 18, 2003.

CONFERENCE REPORT ON H.R. 1588, NATIONAL DEFENSE AUTHORIZATION ACT FOR FISCAL YEAR 2004

SPEECH OF

HON. TOM UDALL

OF NEW MEXICO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 7, 2003

Mr. UDALL of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, today, with our soldiers in harm's way around the globe, and as seemingly constant reports come on the television of brave men and women either killed or wounded, I rise in support of the FY04 National Defense Authorization Act conference report. This important legislation provides much-needed pay increases for our troops, as well as authorizes funding for important construction projects at New Mexico's military bases. This is, however, far from perfect legislation and I have very serious concerns about several provisions included in this year's bill. This legislation has traditionally been free of highly controversial issues, which, unfortunately, have found their way into this year's authorization.

I would first like to touch on the exemptions to the Endangered Species Act (ESA) and Marine Mammal Protection Act (MMPA) that were included in this legislation. I was a conferee on this section of the bill and believe that the exemptions included in the conference report do not strike an adequate balance between maintaining a level of high military readiness, which I strongly support, and protecting at-risk species.

The DOD argues that the existing national security exemptions in our environmental laws are not good enough for the military, even though the GAO found that claim was without basis. The DOD Authorization Conference Report creates a far weaker and unwarranted regulatory process for the Navy. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, we should have rejected the exemptions to the ESA and MMPA. As Mr. Rumsfeld acknowledged in Qatar, we have the "best trained, best equipped and finest troops on the face of the earth." Considering this, the military exemptions this legislation creates are unnecessary and should have been struck from the Report.
